

VILLA MAGDALENA

Alejandro Garmendia (San Sebastián, 1959 - 2017) possessed a subversive attitude and an ingenious approach to the aesthetic structure and formal aspects of landscape and architecture. He commandeered them to a point of departure where a plethora of images manifested themselves in a variety of ways, documenting the non-existent and creating the physically impossible. Phantasmagorical objects shift, transforming what we are looking at into a world where scale and plane are mixed together until gravity ceases to exist. Scenes that do not necessarily conform to one particular style, ultimately present a distanced metaphysical vision of an emotional character filled with solitude and melancholy; that brings us into a new painted irreality.

Alejandro Garmendia (1959-2017) lived and worked in numerous cities including San Sebastián, Madrid and New York. He studied Fine Art and graduated from the Universidad del País Vasco (UPV/EHU) in Bilbao in 1985. Significant solo exhibitions have taken place at Galería Masha Prieto (1988, Madrid, Spain); Galería Antonio Machón (1994, Madrid, Spain); Galería Colón XVI (2000, Bilbao); Generous Miracles Gallery (2001, New York City, United States); McClain Gallery (2007, Houston, United States). In 2007 he exhibited alongside Andreas Gursky, Jan Fabre, Per Barclay and Man Ray at the Museo Reina Sofía in Madrid in the group exhibition Perceptions. In March 2018, a year after his death, Alejandro Garmendia was honored through the retrospective, Alejandro Garmendia: Paisajes, enigma y melancolía at the Sala Kubo Museum in San Sebastian, Spain. An attempt to reevaluate his life trajectory. In 2023 Garmendia was included in the group exhibition Años 90 at the San Telmo Museum (San Sebastian), a survey of the various artist collectives that were active in the Basque Country in the late 80's, 90's and the beginning of the 2000's. His work is included in the permanent collections of the Reina Sofía Museum (Madrid), the San Telmo Museum (San Sebastian) and Artium Museoa (Vitoria).
